

Spoon River College presents:

Bargello Hearts Quilt Class

Instructed by Sheila Burton

This stunning quilt will leave your friends and family in awe of your talents. You will be using the book: Bargello Hearts. With instruction from Sheila and this book, you will be walked through the construction of this complicated looking pattern. Kits or fabrics of your choice are available at “Ma’s Got a Notion” in Havana or you can use fabric of your own choosing from your stash or elsewhere. This is an intermediate level quilting class. Basic skills and quilting experience is required. (CE002Q1)

Tuesdays

January 30, February 6, 13, 20, 27, & March 6

1:30-4:30 p.m.

Class fee: $80 + Supplies below

Students will need to bring the following to class:

- A sewing machine that is in good working order that sews a straight seam, the manual, and a quarter inch foot.
- Basic sewing supplies including a seam ripper, fine pins, a rotary cutter with a sharp blade, 6 ½ “ X 24 ½ “ ruler, and scissors.
- A project board.
- 5 Small baskets or boxes. These will hold and separate the different sizes of strips. Also some pieces of left over fabrics to use as leaders and markers for this project. A good quality sewing thread that blends well with your fabrics.
- The book, “Bargello Hearts”, $24, to be purchased at first class session.
- Numbered flat pins and your kit or fabrics chosen to work.

Classes will be held at the Spoon River College Rushville Center located at 706 Maple Ave. in Rushville. Seating is limited to 10 participants so register early. Payment is required to secure your registration.

For questions or to register contact:
Spoon River College Rushville Center
217-322-6060

